

ROCOL Moistureguard Spray

Indoor corrosion preventative

Description

Rocol Moistureguard Spray displaces moisture and provides an ultra-thin film which remains soft and gives complete corrosion protection in conditions of high humidity. Moistureguard Spray does not interfere with the assembly of precision or interference fit parts, or with gauging and measurement during inspection, so that removal is not normally necessary. The thin semi-dry film contains a blue dye for easy identification and can be removed by normal petroleum solvents such as white spirit, mineral turps or normal degreasing solvents.

Areas of application

- Steel stock
- Machined components
- Moulding dies
- Press tools
- Hand tools
- Machine tools

Features

- Provides corrosion protection indoor for up to 6 months
- Excellent penetration and dewatering properties
- Thin film does not interfere with precision assemblies
- MPI Approved C22 (All animal product except dairy)

Directions for use

Apply by brushing, dipping or spraying component so that upon evaporation of the solvent carrier a thin film remains.
